

Here is an opportunity for your Troop or Pack to participate in a major university research project and also to learn about the common birds of the city.

www.CelebrateUrbanBirds.org

There is an excellent powerpoint of common birds that can be utilized as a troop activity by itself and which definitely can be used in a pack program. There are related arts and craft projects that can be particularly useful at the pack level.

If you want to talk more about this contact me

Frank S. Merritt

Frank.merritt@utoledo.edu (make certain you have an appropriate subject line)

419-535-8775